

Rosalío Reyes Guillermo

Universidad Carlos III de Madrid

DOMINATION ON HYPERBOLIC GRAPHS

The theory of domination in graphs is an area of increasing interest in discrete mathematics and combinatorial computing. Besides of the mathematical and combinatorial importance of the theory, it has been applied successfully in different practical problems. The study of hyperbolic graphs is an interesting topic since the hyperbolicity of any geodesic metric space is equivalent to the hyperbolicity of a graph related to it.