Contact Blow–Up

R. Casals

Universidad Complutense de Madrid

Topological methods have become prominent in the subject of contact geometry. We will motivate the interest for this area and introduce the basic definitions along with relevant examples. The focus of the talk will then be to explain the contact blow–up: the algebraic and symplectic blow–ups will be first reviewed and the construction detailed. If time permits, we may discuss an application.